

DISCIPLES GIVE

$250,000 IN DRIVE

Dr. Clifford S. Weaver to Direct Campaign Until Churches All Take Part

Lexington, Ky.—Dr. Clifford S. Weaver will be in charge of the Kentucky Division Disciples World Movement until the $1,200,000 quota for the year has been raised or until every Christian church in Kentucky has had the opportunity of saying whether it desires to have its share in the movement. Dr. Weaver said the total pledged to date was in excess of $250,000.

"We are proud of the effort made by the Disciples churches which have responded so nobly to the call for Christian service," said Dr. Joseph W. Hagin, state director of the campaign, on the eve of leaving for Covington to preach in his own church in that city Sunday. "It has been a lesson to us in unselfish devotion to the cause of the Master and to the great cause of education and missions of the Disciples Brotherhood. The fact that many churches have had other campaigns on their hands and have not had the opportunity to make the campaign necessary to raise the quotas assigned to them has handicapped us and made necessary a continuance of the campaign. Dr. Weaver is amply able to look after it, and opportunity will be given before it closes for every member of the Christian church in Kentucky to give or pledge a sum of money for this most worthy cause."

"Surely the gifts of the churches which have responded to our appeal is like treasure laid up in Heaven," for it will make possible the payment of living salaries to hard-pressed teachers in our colleges and improvements which absolutely were necessary, if these colleges were to maintain their standard of excellence in former years."

Dr. Weaver will have an office in the Central Christian Church's educational department, from which he will conduct the campaign for the remainder of the fund, which it is hoped to raise within the next two months.

CROMWELL

Farmers are very busy with their work, and if the rain will abate for awhile the farmer will get out a good crop yet.

The Cromwell Mason Lodge was honored by having Supt. Adams with us last Tuesday evening and night. There were a number of lodges represented, Beaver Dam, Hartford, Morgantown, Rochester, McHenry, Hancock and Rockport. After 6 o'clock supper the members of all lodges represented met in hall for work in M. M. degree.

Sunday school at Green River church is progressing nicely with Warren Shields Supt. and Mrs. Laura Edmons Sec. and Treas. We invite all to take part in the Lord's work.

C. W. Stevens will leave in a few days for Kansas, where he goes to thrash wheat.

Preaching at Green River church first and second Sunday in each month.

Bradley Thomas, of Hartford, visited Wayman Wade, last Saturday and Sunday.

Quite a crowd of young folks have gone to Bowling Green, to work in the Strawberry field.

Success to the Hartford Herald and its many readers.

ARMY WORMS ON IN DAVIESS COUNTY

The army worms have made their appearance on the Henderson county border line and are coming over into Daviess county. County Agent Whitehouse was called to the Richland farm and Murphy Bros., where the army worms have eaten heavily into the meadows. The bran bait poisoning is recommended. They are noted making their way in numbers from the meadows now to the corn fields across the road in that district and they are especially fond of red top and timothy.—Owensboro Messenger.

Takes Hold Ad Helps

Colds that "hang on" should be gotten rid of, for no one can stand the strain of racking cough, disturbed sleep and irritation of throat and lungs. Marie Heisler, Freeport, Ill., writes: "I had more or less of a cough for years and I have taken quite a number of medicines. None of them takes hold and helps like Foley's Honey and Tar." This old, reliable cough syrup promptly helps coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Contains no opiates. Children like it.

CROP OF COTTON IN THE WORST EVER KNOWN

Washington, June 7.—Reporting the condition of the cotton crop on May 25, at 626.4 per cent of normal the department of Agriculture announced that this was the lowest mark in its record of fifty years and that the recurring statement, "worst ever known," was confirmed.

The lowest previous condition report on May 25 was 69.5 per cent in 1917. Last year's figure on this date was 75.6 per cent.

"Cotton is reported as poor to bad in all cotton states, and in almost every county in the cotton belt," the announcement said. "The season throughout the belt is from four to six weeks late."

The report said that excessive winter and spring rains packed the soil and subsequent lack of shortage of normal rainfall over much of the belt from Texas to North Carolina caused the rapid drying out of the hardpacked surface. Much planting was done in "the mud," and the cold, wet soil caused much rotting of seeds, while the cold nights and that had come to a stand and left frost caused a loss of many fields many other thin and backward, lacking color and vigor.

Replanting has ranged as high as 40 per cent in some states and planting and replanting are still under way in all states, the report added.

SHE'S 87, BUT PREFERS FLYING TO ROCKING CHAIR

Brattleboro, Vt., June 5.—Fred Harris, former Army aviator and widely known tennis player, took his grandmother, Mrs. F. H. Harris 87 years old, for an airplane ride on her birthday.

They climbed 3,000 feet. "Wonderful," exclaimed the grandmother; "just like sitting in my rocking chair."

6 MADE UNCONSCIOUS BY BOLT; 3 MAY DIE

Madisonville, Ky., June 5.—Lightning today rendered unconscious six men sitting in front of a restaurant at St. Charles, this county. Three probably were fatally injured.

The dangerously hurt are Walter Smith, Ed Adams and E. Lansden. The others injured are W. T. Craner, principal of the St. Charles School; Raymond Settle and James Blanchard.

The bolt, which preceded a severe electrical storm, bowled the men over like tennies. Their faces, necks and shoulders were burned.

LOOKING BACKWARD

(By William R. Shields)
I love to think of days in camp, when early in the morn,
I faintly heard—and deeply cursed—the burgler's raucous horn:
I sit and dream of training days when I would hike and drill,
And learn a thousand fancy ways the subtle Boche to kill;
And often from the field I'd trudge with sweat upon my brow:
I love to lie in bed and think, I needn't do it now.

I love to think of days—and nights—when in the snow and rain,
I stood on guard, and froze my feet, and almost went insane;
I love to think of slushy days when on my sturdy back
I tote through France's sticky mud a hefty army pack;
And oft at night I'd hunt a berth in some damp, chilly mow:
I love to lie in bed and think, I needn't do it now.

Ah, well! "the moving finger writes and, having writ, moves on;"
Those days (alas!) will ne'er return—they are forever gone;
The time has passed when I was wont to stick the husky Hun;
I'm just a drab civilian, bo—I miss the old-time fun;
But still I don't feel very blue; I kiss my loving frau,
And lie in bed, and thank my stars I'm not a soldier now.

The Meaning

Optim: "Marriage is the logical conclusion of the average normal man."

Pessim: "Let's see. Conclusion means finish, doesn't it?"

Re-revenge!

Passing through a military hospital, a distinguished visitor saw a horribly wounded private from one of the Irish regiments.

"When are you going to send that man back to the States?" he inquired.

"He ain't going back to the States, he's goin' back to the front," an orderly informed him.

"Back to the front?" exclaimed the visitor, "but, man, he's in awful shape!"

"Yes," replied the orderly, "and he thinks he knows who done it."

COMPARISON INVITED BY DEMOCRATIC LEADERS

Proud Party's Record, as Contrasted With Failure of Republican Congress

Washington, D. C.—Democratic leaders in Congress occasionally make reference to constructive legislation enacted by Congress when in the control of Democrats. The record is written and is easy of comparison with the record of failure of the present Republican Congress.

Representative Rouse, of Kentucky, a Democrat, recently cited some of the acts which the Democratic Congresses wrote between 1912 and 1918. Here are some of them:

Direct election of United States Senators; publicity for campaign contributions; Sherwood pension act; Eight-hour day; Children's Bureau; extension of parcel post system; creation of Department of Labor; establishment of rural credits system; enactment of Federal Reserve law; passage of income tax act; vocational education bill; Lever agricultural extension act; Clayton anti-trust law; establishment of Federal Trade Commission; cotton futures act; seaman's law; good roads legislation; espionage act; Webb export tradeact; food control law; act permitting co-ordination of executive bureaus for the better conduct of the war.

This is not a complete list, but is sufficient for purposes of comparison with the record of the present Republican Congress.

One of the oft-made declarations of the present Congress is that it would repeal war emergency legislation. The latest move in that direction was made by Senator Jones, of Washington, who introduced a bill for that purpose.

This Congress has had twelve months in which to repeal this emergency legislation. The President called Congress together in May, 1919, and made certain recommendations for constructive legislation to enable business and industry to get back to a peace-time basis. Tax law revision, tariff adjustments and other important readjustments were urged by the President, but his suggestions have been completely ignored.

Senator Jones knows the Senate masters, Lodge, Penrose and Smoot, will see that his bill "dies sleeping." Talk of repealing this and that law and of passing this and that bill is for home consumption for campaign purposes; is merely a camouflage for political play and to afford a vehicle for attacks on the President. Senate delay in confirming the nomination of Henry Morgenthau to be Ambassador to Mexico is causing embarrassment at this new crisis in Mexican affairs. Mr. Morgenthau was regarded as being peculiarly fitted for the difficult post at the Mexican capital. It is urgent that he be at that post. But Senator Lodge, who believes no good can come from the White House when it is occupied by a Democrat, won't allow the Foreign Relations Committee to act on Morgenthau's appointment.

Republicans in Congress cry out that American interests in Mexico are not being protected, yet refuse to allow the President to send an Ambassador to that country to protect those interests.

Republican leaders in the House have made a "mess" out of soldier bonus legislation, simply because they are trying to play politics with the question. Had they co-operated with the President and with Secretary Lane when they brought the soldier legislation subject to the attention of Congress a year ago, they would not now be in their predicament. But they refused to allow the name of any Democrat to be linked with any legislation, and they are in the quicksand—the harder they struggle trying to get out of the mess they are in, the deeper they sink. They refuse to allow the name of a Democrat to be linked with any act of Congress. One is reminded of the time when Speaker Gillett let it be known that none but a Republican would be allowed to introduce a resolution providing for a Congressional welcome to General Pershing upon his return to America from France.

Official Business

A returned doughboy was whistling loudly in the lobby of an exclusive hotel when the irate manager appeared.

"Here you," he remonstrated, "Don't you know it's against the rules of this hotel to whistle?"

"That ain't an ordinary whistle," objected the soldier, "I'm piping the mascot of my outfit."

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor
A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Hartford resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

S. L. King, prop. harness and grocery store, Main St., Hartford says: "I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a good medicine for kidney trouble for they have done me a great deal of good whenever I have had occasion to use them. Several times I have suffered from pains that I knew were caused by weak kidneys. At those times I got Doan's Kidney Pills and used them as directed. They never failed to cure the attack."

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER, Mr. King said: "I still have an excellent opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. I use this remedy occasionally and always have wonderful results."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. King had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)
